What You do with Tofu!

More of us are eating tofu these days for a variety of reasons – mostly because of the highly touted health benefits. According to the SoyFoods Association, tofu sales have more than doubled since 1992 to $250 million in sales in 2002. But lets get real...tofu can be boring! Finally a company that hit on a great idea: delicious sauces for tofu that are certified organic (that means no high fructose corn syrup allowed!) and all-natural. Flavors are Smoky Chipotle, Spicy Peanut, Orange Hoisin, and Ginger Teriyaki. You can also use them to add flavor to meat, poultry, seafood, rice and vegetables. Retails for $4.79/8 Fl. Oz.
